The Summer Village of Ma-Me-O Beach is pleased to introduce Erin Dentzien as the face behind the History Book Project. Erin is a 2012 graduate from the Journalism program at MacEwan University. Erin's experience is diverse and she has worked for non-profit organization, government offices, private National companies and small business owners. Erin now spends her time working one-on-one with clients who utilize her skills for website design and social media management as a Communications & Marketing Specialist. Erin enjoys listening to the stories told around a kitchen table and putting those words to paper to paint a picture of how life once was.
